- 8. - 13. In case of non-compliance by the Purchaser with these Conditions, the Seller, in addition to all other remedies provided by law, shall have the option either (a) to retain the Purchaser's down money as liquidated damages regardless of whether or not, or on what terms, the property is resold, or (b) to resell the property at public or private sale, with or without notice to the present purchaser or his sureties (if any) and to retain any advance in price, or hold the present Purchaser and any sureties liable for any loss, resulting from such resale, meanwhile holding the down money paid hereunder as security for or toward payment of any such loss.

3	INFORMATION REGARDING THE REAL ESTATE SELLER DISCLOSURE LAW
5 6 7	The Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law (68 P.S. §7301, et seq.) requires that before an agreement of sale is signed, the seller in a residential real estate transfer must disclose all known material defects about the property being sold that are not readily observable. A material defect is a problem with a residential real property or any portion of it that would have a significant adverse impact on the value of the property or that involves an unreasonable risk to people on the property. The fact that a structural element, system or subsystem is at or beyond the end of its normal useful life is not by itself a material defect.
10 11	This property disclosure statement ("Statement") includes disclosures beyond the basic requirements of the Law and is designed to assist Seller in complying with disclosure requirements and to assist Buyer in evaluating the property being considered. Sellers who wish to see or use the basic disclosure form can find the form on the website of the Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission. Neither this Statement nor the basic disclosure form limits Seller's obligation to disclose a material defect.
14 15	This Statement discloses Seller's knowledge of the condition of the Property as of the date signed by Seller and is not a substitute for any inspections or warranties that Buyer may wish to obtain. This Statement is not a warranty of any kind by Seller or a warranty or representation by any listing real estate broker, any selling real estate broker, or their licensees. Buyer is encouraged to address concerns about the condition of the Property that may not be included in this Statement.
	The Law provides exceptions (listed below) where a property disclosure statement does not have to be completed. All other sellers are obligated to complete a property disclosure statement, even if they do not occupy or have never occupied the Property.

34 35 36 37	COMMON LAW DUTY TO DISCLOSE  Although the provisions of the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law exclude some transfers from the requirement of completing a disclosure statement, the Law does not excuse the seller's common law duty to disclose any known material defect(s) of the Property in order to avoid fraud, misrepresentation or deceit in the transaction. This duty continues until the date of settlement.
